

Our global team can deliver a custom curriculum to meet your specific requirements. Superior communication skills are the result.

PowerSpeaking®

An intensive, skill-based workshop that transforms people into confident presenters. Includes planning checklists and individual feedback.

Speaking Up: Presenting to Decision Makers®

Strategies for communicating important ideas to senior leaders. Based on PowerSpeaking, Inc.'s years of learning expertise and extensive interviews with senior executives, the course teaches participants how to provide critical context, bottom-line communication, and demonstrate executive presence.

HighTechSpeaking®

Designed specifically for engineers, scientists, and other technical presenters. Translate complex details into a logical, concise framework.

Confident Speaking for Women

A highly interactive 3-hour working session devoted to examining communication strengths and elevating personal awareness of how to leverage words and body language, and how to accelerate career strategies. Confident Speaking for Women addresses the unique communication challenges and opportunities women experience in their careers.

SalesSpeaking®

Gives sales professionals the confidence, skills, and strategies they need to engage and persuade decision makers.

FastTrackSpeaking®

A hybrid course that combines advanced presentation skills with the focused strategy of speaking to executives and decision makers.

Coaching

Tailored guidance for leaders, key individuals, and groups by master coaches with substantial experience. Prep for any high-stakes presentation—a product launch, a board meeting, a sales kickoff.

Achieving Meeting Success

An intensive, skill-based workshop that transforms people into confident presenters. Includes planning checklists and individual feedback.

Global Presentations™

A quick way to fine-tune a talk for a global audience. Ideal for entering a new cultural environment or presenting to worldwide locations.

ConferenceSpeaking™

A virtual program developed with the aid of in-depth interviews with conference presenters. This two-module course is designed specifically for various modalities of conference presentations, including keynotes, panel discussions, and small-group talks.

PowerStart

An on-demand, video-based program offering bite-size, best-practice highlights from our two most popular in-person workshops: HighTechSpeaking® and Speaking Up: Presenting to Decision Makers. Available in concert with the Courageous Leadership Institute, PowerStart is a great entrée to other programs offered by both companies.

PLUS – Video Library

Post-program refreshers that reinforce learning principles and long-term retention. Plus was designed for digital- and mobile-specific content so participants have greater access to their PowerSpeaking material on the move.
